

Libby Marrs

libbymarrs.net

(505) 659-8202

emarrs@risd.edu

72 Meeting St.

Providence, RI

02906

EDUCATION

Rhode Island School of Design

BFA Graphic Design 2020

WORK EXPERIENCE

Voluntary assistant, County Arts Board

Albuquerque, NM — 2014

Assisted as a member of my city's County Arts Board in organizing an art show with proceeds going to a local womens' law center. Assisted in selecting works, curating, and promotional and organizational tasks.

Intern, Genuine & Ginger

(Albuquerque, NM) — Summer 2017

Designed promotional graphics and newsletters, planned events, photographed products, managed/created content for social media, and designed a lookbook publication for the new collection.

Teacher's Assistant, RISD

(Providence, RI) — Summer 2018

Assisted professors for design classes at the RISD Pre-College program.

ACTIVITIES

Design For America, Team Leader

(Providence, RI) — 2018–present

Currently, leading a group of students working on a project at DFA Brown/ RISD to research legislation around nicotine addiction in Rhode Island, and prototyping a design intervention to educate the public on the issue.

Brown Political Review, Editorial Designer

(Providence, RI) — 2019–present

Designing for Brown University's political journalism magazine, working on layout and graphics.

RELEVANT COURSEWORK

HTML & CSS Workshop

Built a solid understanding of basic HTML and CSS, while learning how the Web works and how to take advantage of it as a medium.

Publishing Design

Learning best practices in print design, assembling photo / artist books, practicing typography, layout, pacing, and more.

History of Graphic Design

Established a fundamental knowledge of the history of Graphic Design through research and studio projects.

SKILLS

Photoshop

Illustrator

InDesign

Typography

Illustration

Photography

Sewing & Apparel Design

HTML & CSS

REFERENCES

Kyla Donner, Genuine & Ginger
(Tumblr)

(505) 301-1003

hello@genuineandginger.com