

LIBBY MARRS

Graphic Design Student, Fine Artist,
Baker, Barista based in Providence, RI.

CONTACT

(505) 659-8202
emarrs@risd.edu

72 Meeting St.
Providence, RI
02906

PORTFOLIO / WEBSITE

libbymarrs.net

SKILLS

Adobe Creative Cloud (Photoshop, Illustrator & InDesign)

Graphic Design & Typography

Illustration

Photography

Sewing & Apparel Design

HTML & CSS

REFERENCES

Kyla Donner, Genuine & Ginger (Tumble)
(505) 301-1003
hello@genuineandginger.com

Amanda Rogers Merida, RISD
Pre-College Professor
(401) 569-9443
arogers@egsd.net

EDUCATION

2012 Albuquerque Academy Albuquerque, NM
- I received my high school diploma from Albuquerque Academy.

2016 Rhode Island School of Design Providence, RI
- I am currently an Honors Student at RISD, studying to present receive a BFA in Graphic Design.

EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

2014 Voluntary assistant, County Arts Board Albuquerque, NM
- I assisted a member of my city's County Arts Board in organizing 2015 an art show with proceeds going to a local womens' law center. I helped select submitted works, curate the show, and did various promotional and organizational tasks.

2017 Intern, Genuine & Ginger Albuquerque, NM summer I interned at Genuine & Ginger (now named Tumble), a local jewelry-making startup. I designed promotional graphics and newsletters, planned events, photographed products, and managed/created content for social media. I also designed a lookbook publication for the new collection, and helped with jewelry construction.

2018 Teacher's Assistant, RISD Providence, RI
summer I spent the summer TA-ing for design classes at the RISD Pre-College program.

ACTIVITIES

2018 Design For America, RISD/Brown Providence, RI
- At DFA, I am currently the team leader of a group of present students working on a project to research mental health among Providence high schoolers and implement hands-on design solutions aimed at destigmatizing it.